NOTE.

As the final pages of this Register are going to press, our country is engaged in its first conflict with a Continental Power, and it is fitting that this opportunity be taken to extend the good wishes of the Society to its numerous members in the army, navy, and volunteer forces of the United States who are in active service against Spain, and to wish them a speedy and safe return to their homes or stations.

The General Society is actively engaged in raising a Patriotic War Fund, to be used for the purpose of showing its devotion to our country.

SUMMARY.

INDEX OF ANCESTORS AND DESCENDANTS.

(To avoid repetition the services of ancestors will only appear in the index.)

The General Society of Colonial Wars was organized on May 9 and 10, 1893, in the Governor's Room, City Hall, New-York, by delegates from five States and the District of Columbia. A Constitution was adopted on May 10, 1893, subject to the approval of a majority of the delegates present at an adjourned meeting of the General Assembly, and the General Officers were then elected. An adjourned meeting of the General Assembly was held at the Hotel New Netherland, New-York City, on December 19, 1893, and the Constitution as amended unanimously adopted. The final session of the First General Assembly was held in Congress Hall, Philadelphia, May 7 and 8, 1896. The Second General Assembly is to be called in Baltimore, in May 1899, unless previously assembled by special order.

Meetings of the General Council were held in Carpenter's Hall, Philadelphia, on May 8, 1894; in New-York City, on November 12, 1894; in the City Hall, Baltimore, May 13 and 14, 1895; in New-York City, December 19, 1895; in Congress Hall, Philadelphia, May 7, 1896; in New-York, November 19, 1896; in New Haven, May 13, 1897, and in Boston, December 21, 1897.

CONSTITUTION.

PREAMBLE.

Whereas, It is desirable that there should be adequate celebrations commemorative of the events of Colonial History happening from the settlement of Jamestown, Va., May 13, 1607, to the battle of Lexington, April 19, 1775 :

Therefore, The Society of Colonial Wars has been instituted to perpetuate the memory of those events, and of the men who, in military, naval, and civil positions of high trust and responsibility, by their acts of counsel, assisted in the establishment, defense, and preservation of the American Colonies, and were in truth the founders of this nation. With this end in view it seeks to collect and preserve manuscripts, rolls, relics, and records ; to provide suitable commemorations or memorials relating to the American colonial period, and to inspire in its members the fraternal and patriotic spirit of their forefathers, and in the community, respect and reverence for those whose public services made our freedom and unity possible.

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

The Society shall be known by the name and title of the General Society of Colonial Wars.

ARTICLE II.

MEMBERSHIP.

Any male person above the age of twenty-one years, of good moral character and reputation, shall be eligible to membership in the Society of Colonial Wars, who is lineally descended in the male or female line from an ancestor :

(1) Who served as a military or naval officer, or as a soldier, sailor, or marine, or as a privateersman, under authority of the Colonies which afterward formed the United States, or in the forces of Great Britain which participated with those of the said Colonies in any wars in which the said Colonies were engaged, or in which they enrolled men, from the settlement of Jamestown, May 13, 1607, to the battle of Lexington, April 19, 1775; or

(2) Who held office in any of the Colonies between the dates above mentioned, either as

(a) Director-General, Vice-Director-General, or member of the Council, or legislative body in the Colony of New Netherlands;

(b) Governor, Lieutenant or Deputy Governor, Lord Proprietor, member of the King's or Governor's Council, or legislative body in the Colonies of New-York, New Jersey, Virginia, Pennsylvania, and Delaware;

(c) Lord Proprietor, Governor, Deputy Governor, or member of the Council, or of the legislative body in Maryland and the Carolinas;

(d) Governor, Deputy Governor, Governor's Assistant, or Commissioner to the United Colonies of New England, or member of the Council, body of Assistants, or legislative body in any of the New England Colonies.

One collateral representative of an ancestor such as above specified, shall be eligible to membership, provided there be no existing lineal descendant, and provided that such person be the oldest collateral representative in the male line, of such ancestor, or has filed with the Secretary-General of the Society written renunciations from all other persons having nearer claims to representation.

No State Society shall adopt any rule of eligibility for membership which shall admit any person not eligible for membership in the General Society.

But any State Society may, except as to members transferred from another State Society, further restrict, at its discretion, the basis of eligibility for membership in its own society.

ARTICLE III.

GENERAL SOCIETY.

The General Society of Colonial Wars shall consist of the societies now existing in the States of New-York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Massachusetts, Connecticut, and District of Columbia, and such other State Societies as may from time to time be duly organized and authorized by the General Society.

Whenever the word "State" occurs in this Constitution it shall be held to include within its meaning the Territories of the United States, and the District of Columbia.

ARTICLE IV.

OFFICERS.

The officers of the General Society of Colonial Wars shall be — a Governor-General, a Deputy Governor-General from each State Society, a Secretary-General, a Deputy Secretary-General, a Treasurer-General, a Deputy Treasurer-General, a Registrar-General, a Historian-General, a Chaplain-General, a Chancellor-General, and a Surgeon-General. With the exception of the Deputy Governor-Generals the above officers shall be elected by a plurality vote of the delegates present at a General Assembly of the Society. Vacancies occurring by death or resignation may be filled by the General Council for the unexpired term. Each Deputy Governor-General shall be elected by a plurality vote of the delegates present in the General Assembly from the State from which said Deputy Governor-General is chosen. The above officers shall serve until the next regular meeting of the General Assembly, or until their successors are duly chosen.

ARTICLE V.

MEETINGS.

The regular meetings of the General Society shall be termed "General Assemblies" and shall be held once every three years, at such time and place as the preceding General Assembly may elect. Special General Assemblies may be held upon the order of the Governor-General, or upon the order of the Governors of three of the State Societies.

General Assemblies shall consist of the General Officers and five delegates from each State Society. Delegates or General Officers representing a majority of the State Societies shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; and proceedings shall be in accordance with parliamentary law. The order of business shall be—

First. The calling of the General Assembly to order by the Governor-General, or in his absence by the Secretary-General.

Second. Prayer by the Chaplain-General.

Third. Reading of Minutes of last General Assembly.

Fourth. Report from Secretary-General.

Fifth. Report from the Treasurer-General.

Sixth. Reports from Committees and Officers.

Seventh. Unfinished Business.

Eighth. New Business.

Ninth. Reports from State Societies.

Tenth. Election of Officers.

Eleventh. Benediction by the Chaplain-General.

The minutes of each Assembly shall be read before its final adjournment.

ARTICLE VI.

STATE SOCIETIES.

Each State Society shall annually transmit to the Secretary-General a circular letter stating the number of its members, general matters of interest, and any suggestions which may be deemed of advantage to the Society. Each State Society shall, in the month of January in each year, pay to the Treasurer-General the sum of $25.00.

ARTICLE VII.

POWERS OF THE GENERAL SOCIETY.

The General Society shall have sole power of action in the national, as distinct from the State, affairs of the organization. It shall have jurisdiction to pass upon all questions of eligibility referred to, it by the Registrar-General; but shall not otherwise interfere in the regulations or government of any State Society, unless by a plurality vote of the General Assembly, when the surrender of a State charter may be demanded, should an investigation show that such action is necessary for the welfare of the Societies at large. It shall have power to grant charters to States other than those in which the Society is already organized, provided that at least nine persons duly qualified to be members make such application. It shall issue the insignia and the diploma of membership. It shall publish the Year-Book with the coöperation of the several State Societies; and the cost shall be defrayed by the latter in proportion to their membership.

The General Council, which shall be composed of all the General Officers, shall exercise the powers of the General Society (except those of demanding State charters, and of amending the Constitution) between meetings of the General Assembly, to which latter body it shall regularly report all its transactions.

ARTICLE VIII.

GOVERNOR-GENERAL.

The Governor-General, or in his absence, a duly selected temporary presiding officer, shall preside at all General Assemblies and meetings of the General Council of the Society.

ARTICLE IX.

SECRETARY-GENERAL.

The Secretary-General shall be keeper of the Great Seal of the Society, and of the General Society flag, and of the diploma. He shall conduct the general correspondence of the Society and keep a record thereof. He shall have charge of the printing and publications of the Society. He shall give due notice of the time and place of the holding of all meetings of the General Assembly, and of the General Council; and shall keep full record of their proceedings.

ARTICLE X.

TREASURER-GENERAL.

The Treasurer-General shall collect and keep the funds and securities of the Society, and deposit and invest them subject to the direction of the General Council. Out of these funds he shall pay such sums as may be ordered by the General Council. He shall keep a full account of his receipts and payments, and at each General Assembly, or when required by the General Council, shall render an account of the same. He shall be custodian of the die of the insignia, and may issue the insignia and rosettes.

For the faithful performance of his duty, he may be required to give such security as the General Council may deem proper.

ARTICLE XI.

REGISTRAR-GENERAL.

It shall be the duty of each State Society to file with the Registrar-General a duplicate of the application of each member. The Registrar-General shall receive and file all duplicate applications upon which membership has been granted, with a list of all diplomas signed by him, and all documents which the Society may acquire. It shall also be his duty to submit to the General Council any application for membership which, in his opinion, does not fulfil the requirements of Article II. of this Constitution.

ARTICLE XII.

HISTORIAN-GENERAL.

The Historian-General shall keep a detailed record of all historical and commemorative celebrations of the General Society, and shall edit and prepare for publication such historical addresses, papers, and other documents as the Society may decide to publish.

ARTICLE XIII.

CHAPLAIN-GENERAL.

The Chaplain-General shall be an ordained minister of a Christian church, and it shall be his duty to officiate when called upon by the proper officers.

ARTICLE XIV.

CHANCELLOR-GENERAL.

The Chancellor-General shall be a lawyer duly admitted to the bar, and it shall be his duty to give legal opinion on matters affecting the Society when called upon by the proper officers.

ARTICLE XV.

SURGEON-GENERAL.

The Surgeon-General shall be a practising physician.

ARTICLE XVI.

GREAT SEAL.

The Great Seal of the General Society shall be: Within a beaded annulet, a title scroll, "1607, General Society of Colonial Wars, 1775"; and in base the motto: "Fortiter Pro Patria," surrounding diaper charged with nine mullets. Over all a shield, surmounted of the crown, bearing American colonial seals quarterly of nine: I. VIRGINIA: Argent, a cross gules between four escutcheons each regally crowned proper, the first and fourth escutcheons France and England quarterly; second escutcheon, Scotland; third, Ireland. II. NEW-YORK: Argent, a beaver bendways proper, on a bordure tenny, a belt of wampum of the first. III. MASSACHUSETTS: Azure, on a mount between two pine trees vert, an Indian affronte or, belted with leaves of the second, holding in his dexter hand an arrow paleways, point downwards, and in his sinister hand a bow paleways, of the third; upon a scroll proper, issuing from his mouth, the legend, "Come over and help us." IV. NEW HAMPSHIRE: Quarterly, first and fourth grand quarter of France and England; second, Scotland; third, Ireland; over all an escutcheon of pretence; azure billetee or, a lion rampant of the second, for Nassau. V. CONNECTICUT: Argent, a dexter hand issuing out of clouds in dexter chief, holding a double scroll proper, fesseways, bearing the legend, “Sustinet qui transtulit”; in base fifteen grape-vines, six, five, four, leaved and fructed proper. VI. MARYLAND: Quarterly first and fourth paly of six or and sable, a bend counterchanged, for Calvert; second and third, per fesse and per pale argent and gules, a cross bottony counterchanged for Crossland (seal of Lord Baltimore). VII. RHODE ISLAND: Azure, an anchor in pale or. VIII. NEW JERSEY: Quarterly, first, England impaling Scotland; second, France; third, Ireland; fourth, per pale and per chevron; first, gules two lions passant guardant in pale or, for Brunswick; second, or, semée of hearts, a lion rampant azure, for Lunenburgh; third, gules, a horse courant argent, for Westphalia; over all an inescutcheon gules, charged with the crown of Charlemagne. IX. PENNSYLVANIA: Argent, on a fesse sable, three plates; (Arms of Penn.)

ARTICLE XVII.

INSIGNIA.

The insignia of the Society shall consist of a badge, pendant by a gold crown and ring, from a watered silk ribbon one inch and a half wide of red, bordered with white and edged with red. The badge shall be surrounded by a laurel wreath in gold and shall consist of:

Obverse; A white enameled star of nine points bordered with red enamel, having between each starpoint a shield displaying an emblem of one of the nine original colonies ; and, within a blue enameled garter bearing the motto "Fortiter Pro Patria," an Indian's head in gold relievo.

Reverse ; The star above described, but with gold edge, each shield between the points displaying a mullet, and in the center, within an annulet of blue bearing the title "Society of Colonial Wars, 1607-1775," the figure of a colonial soldier in gold relievo. The reverse of the crown of each insignia shall bear an engraved number, corresponding to that of the registered number of the member to whom such insignia has been issued.

The insignia shall be worn by the members on all occasions when they assemble as such, for any stated purpose or celebration, and may be worn on any occasion of ceremony. It shall be worn conspicuously on the left breast; but members who are or have been Gentlemen of the Council of a State Society, may place a rosette of regulation pattern upon the silk ribbon from which it is pendant. Members who are or have been General Officers, or Officers of a State Society, may wear the insignia with three jewels in a crown, and suspended from a regulation ribbon around the neck. Members who are or have been Governors, Deputy Governors, or Lieutenant-Governors of State Societies, or officers of the General Society may, in addition to the insignia so suspended, wear a ribbon of the Society's colors, three and one-half inches in width, extending from the right shoulder to the left hip. The insignia shall be worn only as above prescribed.

The rosette in use by the New York Society was adopted by the General Society, but by error the description was omitted in the Constitution.

ARTICLE XVIII.

DIPLOMA.

The diploma of this Society shall bear the following words:

GENERAL SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS.

Bordering the top and left side of the diploma is an ornamental scrollwork containing within the initial letter "G." of "General Society," a representation of Captain Miles Standish and a band of colonial soldiery; the initial surmounted by the imperial crown of the British empire, and having below it the motto of the Society. Ranged along the scroll are shields bearing the arms of the original nine colonies as emblazoned in the Great Seal of the Society; and around these are emblems of colonial warfare, with the flags of Sweden and New Netherland, and the rose, thistle, shamrock, and cornflower—badges respectively of England, Scotland, Ireland, and Germany. At the center, at top is a cluster of Indian weapons and the head of a Sachem charged upon the fleur-de-lis of France.

ARTICLE XIX.

FLAG.

The flag of this Society shall consist of the red cross of Saint George on a white field, bearing in the center the escutcheon of the General Society surmounted by the crown and surrounded by nine stars.

ARTICLE XX.

STATE SECRETARIES.

It shall be competent for the General Council to appoint State Secretaries in States where no State Societies exist, with a view to represent the interest of this Society, and, if authorized to do so, to prepare for the organization of new State Societies. Such State Secretaries shall be subject to the direction and regulation of the General Council. Their appointment shall be for a limited time, not to exceed one year, but may be renewed. They may be removed for cause, and their office shall terminate upon the organization of, and grant of a charter to, a Society in their State. They shall communicate with and receive communication from the Society through the Secretary-General.

ARTICLE XXI.

MEMBERS OF STATE SOCIETIES.

The General Council shall elect to membership only charter members of new State Societies; whose membership shall be ipso facto transferred to their own State Society with the grant of its charter. No State Society shall elect to membership persons resident within the territory of another State Society, except upon written consent given in advance by the Council of the latter Society. But members changing residence from one State to another, or coming within the jurisdiction of a new State Society, may at their option retain membership in the State Society in which they were originally admitted.

A member of any State Society may be admitted to membership by action of the Council of another State Society, within the bounds of which he is resident, upon satisfactory proof of his membership in good standing in the Society from which he comes, and subject to the rules and regulations of the Society he enters.

An initiation fee shall not be twice required.

ARTICLE XXII.

ALTERATIONS AND AMENDMENTS.

No alterations of, or amendments to, this Constitution shall be made, unless proposed by the Council of a State Society in writing. The Secretary-General shall send a printed copy of the proposed amendment to each State Society, naming the time when and the place where it will be voted upon, and the voting shall take place in the General Assembly. Six months' notice shall be given to each Society. No amendment shall be made, unless adopted by a two thirds' vote of the State Societies through their delegates in the General Assembly,

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of New York, was instituted August 18, 1892, and incorporated October 18, 1892. The First General Court was held at Delmonico's December 19, 1892, Frederic J. de Peyster being elected first Governor and Howland Pell first Secretary of the Society. In May, 1893, the New York Society with the Societies in the States of Pennsylvania, Maryland, Massachusetts, Connecticut and the District of Columbia organized the General Society, these States having been previously chartered by the Society in the State of New York. The Second General Court and dinner were held at the Hotel Waldorf, December 19, 1893. The Third General Court was held at the Hotel Waldorf, December 19, 1894, and the Annual Dinner held there February 11, 1895. The Fourth General Court was held at the same place, December 19, 1895. And the Fifth General Court was held there December 19, 1896, and the Fifth Annual Dinner was held at Delmonico's, January 28, 1897. The Sixth General Court held at Delmonico's new building, on December 20, 1897, and the Sixth Annual Dinner held there January 21, 1898.

in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania was the first one chartered after the New-York Society, the date of organization being January 23, 1893.

The fifth annual dinner was held at Philadelphia, January 27, 1897, to commemorate the settlement of the city of Philadelphia.

Christ Church, Philadelphia, on account of its unique historical associations in connection with the colonial period, has been officially selected as the Chapel of this Society.

The fourth annual Church service was held at the Chapel of the Society, Sunday, November 21, 1897, to commemorate the 139th anniversary of the capture of Fort Duquesne. The sermon was preached by the Right Rev. Ozi W. Whitaker, D.D., LL.D., Bishop of Pennsylvania. The headquarters of the Society is in "Old Congress Hall," the building in which the first Senate and House of Representatives of the United States held their sessions from 1790-1800.

Eligibility for election to membership in this Society requires that the ancestor of the applicant must have been a Commissioned Military or Naval Officer, or a Governor, Deputy-Governor, or Member of the King's or Governor's Council, or Commissioner to the United Colonies of New England previous to 1775, or a member of the Legislative body of any of the Colonies which afterwards formed the United States of America.

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE STATE OF MARYLAND.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Maryland was incorporated at Baltimore, February 28, 1893, and organized on "Colonist Day," March 25th, the two hundred and fifty-ninth anniversary of the landing of the first Maryland Colonists under Leonard Calvert. The first public meeting was held at the Maryland Historical Society's rooms, on St. Cecilia's Day, November 22, 1893, the 260th anniversary of the sailing of the Ark and the Dove from Cowes, Isle of Wight, England, bearing Governor Calvert and his colony to Maryland's shores. The Society holds its Social Courts on November 22d annually, and yearly celebrates the following anniversaries: February 11, George Washington's birthday, O. S.; March 25, The First Landing on Maryland Soil; June 20, The Granting of the Charter of Maryland. At the Fourth Social Court of the Society held at the Hotel Rennert on Nov. 22, 1897, the Society was presented with a superb silver punch bowl weighing 240 oz., eighteen inches in diameter and thirteen inches high, and of pure colonial design.

The Society also has had presented to it a stand of four colors, each six feet by six feet six inches, consisting of the National flag, the flag of the General Society of Colonial Wars, the banner of the Lords' Baltimore, or, as better known, perhaps, the Maryland Flag, and the flag of Great Britain or the Jack flag as adopted by James VII. of Scotland, when he became also James I. of England and united the crowns of Scotland and England. In addition to this the Society also possesses reproductions of the colors carried by the troops of the first ten counties in Maryland in 1694. Eligibility for election to membership in the Society conforms to the requirements of the Constitution of the General Society.

In Memoriam.

4. Henry Stockbridge, died March 11, 1895.

49. EDMUND PLOWDEN JENKINS, died July 7, 1896.

Edmund Plowden Jenkins. He was born 1845, and was a son of the late John W. Jenkins, of Charles County, Md., and a grandson of Judge John I. Jenkins, both of whom served the State as Legislators and Senators.

The traditions of his family are associated with the earliest history of this Commonwealth, and he numbered among his ancestors many distinguished Marylanders.

At the time of his death he was paymaster of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, a position which he had held for over twenty years; he was a man of absolute integrity, true to his trusts, great and small, cultured and intellectual. He was held in the highest estimation by the officers of his company and by the business community of Baltimore.

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts was organized April 5, and incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth April 29, 1893.

In 1896 the Society made a pilgrimage to Duxbury. Later, Marblehead was visited. Prizes were awarded for essays on "King Philip's War," with special reference to the events which belong to Worcester County, to pupils of the Worcester schools.

The Fourth General Court and the annual dinner were held at the Hotel Brunswick, Boston, December 21.

A beautiful State society flag was presented to the Society by Mrs. Frances C. Foster of Cambridge.

In 1897 the Society has held monthly courts, excepting in the summer, at which papers of a historical character have been read by members. Prizes have been awarded to pupils of Plymouth County high schools for essays on "The Landing of the Pilgrims in 1620."

A special court was held at Young's Hotel, Boston, in honor of Hon. Thomas F. Bayard, Ambassador to England, and ex-Chancellor-General of the Society. Mr. Bayard made an address.

The Society has been officially represented by its Governor at the presentation of the Bradford Manuscript, the celebration of the Queen's Jubilee in Boston, and the dinner of the Massachusetts societies of the Sons of the American Revolution and the Sons of the Revolution.

A pilgrimage was made on June 17th to the field of the Sudbury fight. A fall field day was passed at Billerica and Bedford Springs.

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE STATE OF CONNECTICUT.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Connecticut was chartered April 26, 1893, and incorporated under the State laws, May 21, 1893.

The eligibility rules are those of the General Society with the following restrictions: Legislative service unaccompanied with military record does not constitute a valid claim; the direct ancestor in the male line must have resided in the American Colonies before 1750; collaterals are not admitted.

The first General Court was held at New Haven, December 14, 1893, at which time most of the officers and a council were chosen. An adjourned General Court was held at New Haven, May 26, 1894, the 257th anniversary of the attack by Captain John Mason and his forces on the Pequot Fort in Mistick. At this time the rest of the officers were elected, and the Constitution and By-Laws were adopted by a unanimous vote.

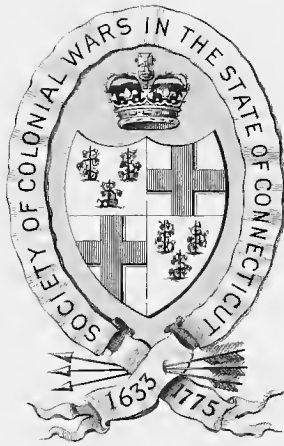

The second General Court was held at New Haven, December 12, 1894.

The third General Court was held at Hartford, May 1, 1895.

The fourth General Court was held at Hartford, May 6, 1896.

The fifth General Court was held at New Haven, May 5, 1897.

The General Court is held on the first Wednesday in May, in commemoration of the first General Court of the Colony of Connecticut, held at Hartford on the first day of May, 1637 (O. S.), at which time the Sovereignty of the Colony was first asserted by the formal Declaration of War against the Nation of the Pequots.

In Memoriam

- 6 Nathan Gillett, died July 29, 1894.
33 PROF. DANIEL CADY EATON, died June 29, 1895.
66 REV. EDWARD ALFRED SMITH, died Oct. 26, 1895.
104 JAMES MASON HOPPIN, JR., died Jan. 23, 1897.
26 FREDERICK PLUMB MILES, died Feb. 19, 1897.
51 JONATHAN S. CURTIS, M.D., died March 31, 1897.
108 WILLIAM ALLYN HUNGERFORD, died April 15, 1897.
James Mason Hoppin, Jr., born at Salem, Mass., May 18, 1857; died at New Haven.

He fitted for Yale, leaving that institution before graduation for what he deemed the ampler opportunities for broader culture at Oxford. He received his high degree from that institution 1880. He was a true lover of nature; the silver silence of the snow was music to him; the fierce driving of the storm gave him rest; the companionship of his dog and horse, keen delight.

He was a welcome guest in every circle where he brought naught of discord or strife, contributing only the pleasant, gentle things of life. No member of this society had a wider circle of friends. He took a deep interest in the affairs of the society. To us it seemed that he had everything to live for, and yet, by a mysterious Providence, he was removed not only from our midst but from a family circle which loved him devotedly, from friends and acquaintances who must ever miss him.

Frederick Plumb Miles, testified his warm interest in the society by early joining it and never missing a meeting. His presence, rather than his words, was a valued indorsement; we knew him as a quiet man.

Doctor Jonathan Strong Curtis, in years one of our oldest members, a citizen whose worth was recognized and appreciated, an able and honored physician whose kindly influence was felt with his entrance into the sick-room and remained as a benefaction long after his departure.

William Allyn Hungerford, a recent but enthusiastic member, ready with his strong and agreeable personality to co-operate in whatever tended to advance the interests of the society—a successful merchant in New York City—a forceful man in whatever he undertook.

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the District of Columbia was organized May 20, 1893, with a membership of twelve. Incorporated November 17, 1893.

The first General Court was held December 19, 1893, the membership list being then increased to twenty-five.

The second General Court and dinner took place at the Shoreham Hotel to commemorate the 219th anniversary of the Great Swamp fight, December 19, 1894.

The third General Court was held at the Shoreham Hotel December 19, 1895. The membership increased to sixty, with one resignation and one death.

At the General Court held December 19, 1895, the membership clause of the Constitution was amended, so that the eligibility from those "men who rendered conspicuous civil service in a period of warfare" might be more clearly defined, by naming each civil officer from whom eligibility must be claimed.

At a meeting held Sept. 25, 1896, a seal for the Society was adopted. The "Collateral Clause" was stricken out of Article II of the Constitution, to take effect Nov. 21, 1896.

The Fourth General Court was held Dec. 19, 1896, at the Shoreham Hotel.

The Fifth General Court was held Dec. 20, 1897.

The Register for the Society was printed November 9, 1897.

In Memoriam.

24 ROBERT S. GREEN, died May 7, 1895.

1 William John Potts, died Nov. 18, 1895.

12 Clifford Stanley Sims, died March 3, 1896.

An inscrutable Providence having removed from the Society of Colonial Wars, in the State of New Jersey, a valued member and its late Chancellor, the Hon. Clifford Stanley Sims, D.C.L., it is with profound sorrow that the following minute is ordered to be placed on the records of the Society.

Judge Sims was a man of various gifts, having been at different times a sailor, a soldier, an author, a statesman, and a jurist.

He served his country with zeal during the late Civil War—first in the Navy and then in the U. S. Volunteers until taken a prisoner and paroled until the close of the war. In this latter branch of the U. S. service he attained the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel.

His service in the Legislature, and later as U.S. Consul at Ottawa, Canada, as well as his membership in a large number of representative bodies, all testify to the distinguished position that men were glad to accord him.

He was the President of the New Jersey State Society of the Cincinnati. A man so strong and vigorous in character, so fearless and outspoken as he was, he yet incurred the enmity of few and maintained the respect of all.

The Protestant Episcopal Church, of which he was a member, was glad of his voice and advice—honored him with a position in her great Triennial Councils—honored him the more because on one notable occasion he stood almost alone for conscience and right. Recalling even now his many noble qualities of mind and heart, and failing perhaps to devise the mysterious Providence that would take so useful a life in its prime, we are glad to be able to bring our warmest tribute of love and honor and say "Beati mortui qui in Domine Moriuntur."

In Memoriam.

19 COLBY, FRANK ARTHUR, M.D., died July 14, 1896.

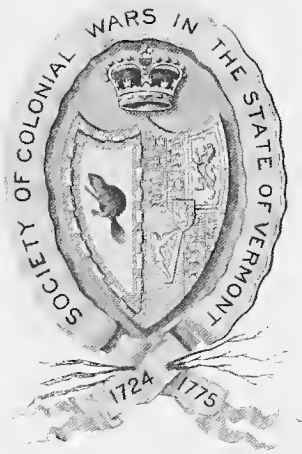

Frank Arthur Colby, M.D., Berlin. Born at Lancaster, N. H., November 4, 1852. Married, November 4, 1880, to Ada Hatch, who with two children—Hortense (13) and Arthur F. (5)—survives him.

He was fitted at Exeter, studied his profession at Burlington, Vt., graduated M.D. at Dartmouth, 1874; traveled in 1874-5 in Europe and Egypt, and became associated with several foreign medical societies, notably that of St. Thomas' Hospital, London, and was a fellow of the State societies of Maine, New Hampshire, Oregon and California.

He practised at Cabot, Vt., Bartlett and Lancaster, N. H., and located at Berlin in 1883.

He represented Berlin in the legislature of 1895—was a Mason, a Knight Templar, and attained the thirty-second degree of the Ancient Scottish Rite; was warden of the St. Barnabas Episcopal Church at Berlin. The interment was at Lancaster, by North Star Commandery, of which he was a valued member.

Dr. Colby was an active, able and useful man, beloved in his family and esteemed by his associates and the public.

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE STATE OF VERMONT.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Vermont was chartered Nov. 12, 1894, and incorporated under the State Laws Nov. 20, 1894. The first General Court was held at Montpelier, Nov. 20, 1894.

Previous to its Declaration of Independence, Vermont was claimed by New York and New Hampshire under charters issued by the Crown of England. Owing to lack of knowledge the grants lapped over each other, and said lands were surveyed, claimed and sold by the Royal Governors of New Hampshire and New York. The result was conflict of ownership among the settlers and demands for payment by both the Royal Governors. The settlers often answered these demands by flogging the emissaries sent to enforce them, which was called "The application of the Beach Seal." The controversies resulted in a declaration of complete independence. Vermont, therefore, cannot claim to have been a colony with established boundaries, and no Great Seal was authorized for her by the British Government. For these reasons it has seemed proper that the Great Seal of the Society should be a combination of those of New York and New Hampshire, including the date of the first white settlement at Dummerston, 1724, and the end of the Colonial period, 1775, also the "Beach Seal" of the "Green Mountain Boys" represented by the beach withs which bind the ribbon at the base.

The Great Seal of the Vermont Society of Colonial Wars is a ribbon of the order united at the base by beach withs, bearing a title scroll, "1724, Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Vermont, 1775," surrounding a diaper carrying a shield bearing the Colonial Seals of New York and New Hampshire joined surmounted of the crown.

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE STATE OF ILLINOIS.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Illinois was chartered by the State of Illinois on October 13, 1894, and by the General Society on November 12, 1894.

On December 7, 1894, a meeting was called by the incorporators, to be held at the Grand Pacific Hotel, Chicago, at which time a constitution and by-laws were adopted and officers chosen.

The first annual banquet was held at the Union League Club on the evening of December 19, 1894, the 219th anniversary of the Great Swamp fight.

Eligibility for election to membership in this Society is the same as that of the General Society, except legislative service unaccompanied by military record is not recognized.

The General Court is the only business meeting of the Society held during the year.

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE STATE OF MISSOURI.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Missouri was organized at St. Louis with twenty-four charter members, on November 22, 1894.

The Society adopted as the date for the General Court, October 10, which date commemorates the possession of Fort Chartres and the battle of Point Pleasant; for, by the Treaty of Paris, concluded February 10, 1763, the question which had been in doubt for a century, whether French or English civilization should rule this continent, was settled for all time. By this treaty Canada and that portion of Louisiana between the Alleghanies and the Mississippi came into possession of Great Britain.

Captain Stirling, with a company of the Forty-second Highlanders, came down the Ohio in boats from Fort Pitt, arriving early in October, 1765. On the tenth day of that month he relieved the French commander of Fort Chartres, St. Ange, who for some months had been under orders to give up the fort whenever a force of British came to relieve him. These were the first English troops who ever set foot in the Illinois country.

Fort Chartres, built by the French in 1720, was, in its time, the strongest fortress in America. Its ruins are on the left bank of the Mississippi River, in Randolph County, Illinois, fifty miles south of St. Louis, and sixteen miles northwest of Kaskaskia.

October 10, 1774, occurred the battle of Point Pleasant, at the junction of the Kanawha with the Ohio River.

Both these events were important colonial footsteps in the direction of the west.

OFFICERS OF THE SOCIETY OF COLONIAL
WARS IN THE STATE OF MISSOURI.

In Memoriam.

33 HENRY HINSDALE CANDEE, died Oct. 16, 1897.

10 Clarence Conde Obear, died Dec. 21, 1897.

Henry H. Candee was born in Harwinton, Connecticut, December 6, 1833, and died at Cairo, Illinois.

Clarence C. Obear was born in St. Louis, Missouri, June 13, 1866, and died at St. Louis. He was a charter member of the Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Missouri.

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE STATE OF OHIO.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Ohio received its charter from the General Society at a meeting of the General Council, held at Baltimore, Md., on May 13, 1895. It was incorporated in the State of Ohio, May 29, 1895, and was organized in the city of Cincinnati, June 1, 1895.

The first Social Court of the Society was held in Cincinnati, December 19, 1895, the 220th anniversary of the Great Swamp Fight. The second Social Court was held in Cincinnati, December 10, 1896, the 143d anniversary of Washington's first expedition to the head waters of the Ohio River.

The Society has been informally entertained by its first Governor, the Hon. Samuel Furman Hunt, at Glendale, Ohio, on October 12, 1895, and by Governor Asa Smith Bushnell, of Ohio, and Dr. Henry Cipperly Dimond, at Springfield, Ohio, on March 25, 1897.

Annual General Courts and banquets have been held in Cincinnati on November 24th in commemoration of the capture of Fort Duquesne, at the head of the Ohio River, on November 24, 1758.

Eligibility for membership by descent from private soldiers who served subsequent to 1700 is not recognized by this Society. Otherwise the conditions of eligibility are those prescribed in the constitution of the General Society.

OFFICERS OF THE SOCIETY OF COLONIAL
WARS IN THE STATE OF OHIO.

Elected at the Third General Court, held November 24, 1897.

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE STATE OF NEBRASKA.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Nebraska was organized at Omaha, April 27, 1895, and was chartered by the General Society May 14, 1895.

The gentlemen present at the first meeting proceeded under the Statutes of Nebraska, to organize as an incorporated society; a constitution was adopted, and officers elected. A Special Court of this Society was held at the Commercial Club, Omaha, on the 220th anniversary of the Great Swamp Fight, December 19, 1895, at which Chancellor Goss read a most instructive monograph on that historical event.

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE STATE OF KENTUCKY.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Kentucky was chartered by the General Society on the 19th of December, 1895. On the 23d of December the members met at the residence of Dr. Thomas Page Grant, Louisville, and formed an organization, adopted a constitution, and elected part of the officers, and after a social session, adjourned, to hold a General Court on the 8th of January, 1896. The time for holding the annual General Courts was fixed for the 13th of May—the anniversary of the settlement of Jamestown, Virginia.

On the 8th of January a General Court was held, and the remainder of the officers were elected, and the Court adjourned to meet at the call of the Governor.

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of California was instituted in the United States Government Building at the City of Los Angeles on November 30, 1895, by nineteen gentlemen, and a Charter was granted by the General Society on December 19, 1895.

Eligibility for membership is the same as prescribed by Article II. of the Constitution of the General Society, except that collaterals are not admitted.

The first General Court and dinner were held at Los Angeles on March 7, 1896, at which time a permanent Code of By-Laws was adopted.

The time for holding the General Court is December 21, "Forefathers' Day."

The flag of this Society is argent, a cross of Saint George gules; an escutcheon or, bordered sable, charged with a grizzly bear, passant, proper, under the motto "Eureka."

The Great Seal is described as follows: viz:

Within a beaded annulet, a title scroll, "Society of Colonial Wars in the State of California, 1542-1775," surrounding a group of Colonial weapons; over all a shield Quarterly. I. and IV.: Gules a tower triple-towered, or (Castile). II. and III.: Argent, a lion rampant gules, crowned, or (Leon). Upon a chief of the last a grizzly bear, passant, proper, (California.)

OFFICERS OF THE SOCIETY OF COLONIAL
WARS IN THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

Elected at the General Court, December 21, 1897, for the year 1898.

In Memoriam

9 Harry Woodville Latham, died May 14, 1896.

Harry Woodville Latham was born in Lynchburg, Va., September 30, 1862, died in Pasadena, Cal., and was the son of George Woodville Latham, an officer of the staff of General Robert E. Lee during the War of the Rebellion, and Louise Caroline Calhoun, his wife, of Bridgeport, Conn.

His youth was passed in Bridgeport, whence he entered Yale College, from which he was graduated with the degree of A. B. in the class of 1883. He subsequently entered the Law School of Columbia College, and ultimately became associated professionally with the law firm of Seward, Griswold, Guthrie and Da Costa, of New-York.

In 1887, by reason of failing health, he went to California, locating at Los Angeles, where he commenced an active professional career, which terminated only with his death.

He was a zealous member of the California Society Sons of the Revolution, and upon the organization of the Society of Colonial Wars in the State of California, he was unanimously chosen the first Secretary.

His mother was daughter of the late Philo Calhoun, well known in New-York City as President of the Fourth National Bank.

Through his mother, Mr. Latham was descended from Captain Thomas Fitch, Captain David Sherman, Matthew Mitchell, Thomas Sherwood, Joseph Hawley and Samuel Sherman, ancestors distinguished in the early military and civil history of Connecticut.

In Memoriam.

7 Fisher, William Garrett, died April 6, 1897.

28 EDSALL, THOMAS HENRY, died October 26, 1897.

William Garrett Fisher was born in Cambridge, Washington County, New-York, July 11, 1844, and died in New-York City.

He was a "Charter Member" and "Gentleman of the Council" of the Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Colorado.

He was the surviving member of the firm of Daniels & Fisher, and was universally loved and esteemed. He was a member of the Colorado Society of Sons of the Revolution, and one of its Board of Managers. He was a member of Lincoln Post, G. A. R., and served three years during the War of the Rebellion.

In August, 1873, he married Miss Mary Frances Cherry, of Saratoga, N. Y., who survives him, also two children, Barbara and Sherman.

Mr. Fisher was a direct lineal descendant of the Hon. Philip Sherman, and Philip de la Noye, of the Dedham, Massachusetts, Fishers, the Hartford family of Warners, and the Carswells.

Thomas Henry Edsall, born in New-York City, October 7, 1840, and died at Colorado Springs, Colorado. Graduated at Brown University, B. A., 1861. Commissioned Adjutant 176th Regiment, N. Y. Vols., 1862, until close of 1863. Admitted to the New-York Bar in 1865. Member of New-York Genealogical and Biographical Society, founder and vice-president New-York Society of Sons of the Revolution, organizer of the New-York University Club, Member and Founder of the Colorado Society of Sons of the Revolution, Colorado Commandery of the Loyal Legion, Holland Society of New-York, Gentleman of the Council, Society of Colonial Wars in Colorado, member of the El Paso Club, and President of the Cheyenne Mountain Country Club at Colorado Springs.

GENERAL SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY GENERAL,

27 William Street, New-York City.

The undersigned having compiled the General Society Registers for 1894, 1895, 1896 and 1897-98, takes this opportunity of thanking the officers and members of the Society for their kind assistance and co-operation in preparing the vast amount of material necessary for such publications, and especially for this edition, the last to be issued by the present Secretary-General.

It is, of course, impossible to avoid all errors in such a task, but very few corrections have been reported to this office. It has been suggested that the references should be printed after each ancestor's name, but on account of space the idea was abandoned. The desired information may be obtained by applying to the Registrar General, giving the General Society number, or to the State Society Registrar, giving the State Society number.

The degree of descent is counted by including the member and excluding the ancestor through whom eligibility is claimed.

The matter relating to the various State Societies has been prepared by their officers, and the proofs corrected by them, so all correction of errors and notification of omissions should be sent to the Secretary-General, through the Secretaries of the State Societies, that changes may be noted by them. Members should also send all corrections to the Registrar of their State Society.

The Society is to be congratulated on an increase of 955 members, and upon the successful organization of seven new State Societies since the last Register was issued. Many State Societies have permanent headquarters, the nucleus of valuable libraries, and have erected interesting historical memorials. Members should take pride in their organization, which in rapid growth and successful organization, stands second to none in this country.

HOWLAND PELL,

March 19, 1898.

Secretary-General.

To be erected at Lake George, by the New York Society. Contributions from those interested in the effort to erect this memorial, and particularly from the descendants of participants in the Battle, will be appreciated by the Committee.
